

Nomad Application Checklist

with

You might be asking yourself, “How do I make sure I get selected?”

Well, here are a few pointers to double-check on:

- Get a thorough understanding of the requirements and steps for applying to this position. Direct any queries you may have through our Contact page (<https://with.travel/contact-us/>)
- Don't apply unless you are a well-travelled and a well-organized person
- Go on a trip with any of our current Nomads to get an insight into what leading a group may be like

Checklist for Phase 2 of the Application

- In your CV, make sure to emphasize on your people and leadership skills by giving examples from previous life experiences
- Ensure to prepare and upload your CV as a .pdf file
- Having your own special interest or unique view of travel and mentioning it in your application would be a bonus

- Show us your unique skills (for example, prepare and upload your professional photographs from your travels to showcase your photography skills, or share a page or two from your travel journals/blogs to showcase your writing skills)

- Prepare and upload your Introduction Video:

The goal of this Introduction Video is to briefly tell us about yourself. We want to get to know you a little. Consider using the structure below as a guide on what to talk about:

- Who you are
- What drives you
- A strength and a weakness
- Your favourite quote
- Your role model
- An important life lesson you have learnt
- Avoid repeating information that you will already provide in your answers throughout the application form (for example, don't repeat your most memorable travel experience story)
- The time limit is 1 minute, kindly do not exceed this limit
- Add your own creative, unique flare to it
- Record your video with adequate light and good sound settings
- Upload your video (preferably in HD) on YouTube or Vimeo as unlisted/private, then copy paste the link into the application form
